POPULAR FIANCEE GUEST OF HONOR

Young Friends Give Miss Dobbel
Miscellaneous Shower and Party.

Mrs. Ed Johannsen, her daughter Miss Edda and her niece, Miss Helayne Volquardsen gave a delightful affair last Friday, complimentary to Miss Dorothy Dobbel, fiancée of Harold Coops.

The hostesses and invited guests left the Johannsen home early in the afternoon in four automobiles and surprised the fair bride-to-be whom they called out into the garden and after marching about her and going through much merry formality, she was presented with many lovely gifts. It was a miscellaneous shower, comprising much pretty hand work, cut glass and useful as well as ornamental presents.

The girls in charge of the ceremonies wore sailor suits and had planned the decorations along patriotic lines, so the dining room was festooned with flags, and tiny emblems also graced the table. After a dainty repast, singing, music on the Victrola and general good time, the guests took their departure amid renewed congratulations on the approaching wedding of their fair young friend.

Those present at Friday's shower were Misses Dobbel, Marie Helberg, Mrs. Myrtle Thomas Helberg, Alice Young, Carola Felder, Edith Lowell, Sylvia Picetti, Virginia Picetti, Edda Johannsen, Helayne Volquardsen, Margaret Helberg. Among the matrons present were Mrs. Burmester, Mrs. F. Helberg Sr., and Mrs. Dobbel.

Bertha Marie Lounibos has begun suit for divorce from Emil Paul Lounibos.

Mrs. L. C. Lewis and her daughter Mrs. James Oliver returned to Berkeley Saturday. Mrs. Hoen, another daughter went to Santa Rosa where she is visiting relatives.

Ralph Nagle, deputy county recorder was here Saturday in the interest of his father's candidacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings of San Joaquin County have been visiting up the Cornwall home, having motored up this week.

SOLEMN SPLENDOR MARKS FUNERAL

News Comes of Last Sad Rites For Emma Campbell Cozzens in Africa

After waiting two long months for word concerning the last illness and death of Mrs. Edward Cozzens, African missionary and former Sonoma girl, her relatives here have received word from the bereaved husband at Duala, Kamerun province. The letters confirming the cablegram of two months ago which announced her death state that the cause of death was abscess of the brain from which there was no cure although missionary doctors and French specialists attended her. She was stricken while in France and after embarking from there, suffered greatly until the African port was reached where every thing possible was done for her. Science availed not however, and she passed away in the far away foreign land which she had chosen as her field of work. Her husband was at her side as she passed to the great Beyond and when her passing became generally known, the missionary settlement, French officials and native all showed greatest respect to her memory and could not do enough for Mr. Cozzens in his great grief.

At the funeral of this noble American girl, a choir of 50 native voices rendered most beautifully, sacred songs and in honor of the United States, under whose flag the bereaved husband was a citizen, the French official minister and 30 of his aides attended the funeral in a body.

Her casket was a beautiful one and in Duala's tropical cemetery in a section set apart for the burial of missionaries, her remains were interred with all due solemnity. Her last resting place was photographed and the picture accompanied letters just received.

Mr. Cozzens will remain at his post to continue missionary work in Africa, 100 miles inland.

Mrs. Cozzens was formerly Miss Emma Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell now of San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson of this valley. Her death was a profound shock to a large circle of friends and former schoolmates.

HIGHER HONORS FOR HERBERT SHAW

Is Now Colonel Shaw and One of Heroes of War Wrecked France

It is Sonoma's proud distinction to claim one of General Pershing's most valuable aids, Dr. Herbert Shaw who has again been honored with a higher commission and is now a Colonel, the commission lately conferred being just six months after his former advancement to Lieutenant Colonel.

The honor had been won by bravery and magnificent conduct in the handling of the big hospitals at the Front and for the past six months Colonel Shaw has been keeping pace with the progress of the worst battles and moved his hospital units where the task of handling wounded men was colossal.

And now comes recognition for his valor and his administrative genius, not only in the conferring of the high commission but in the announcement that he is to have relief and rest that he may recuperate from the awful scenes and tension of the past half year.

While Colonel Shaw's mother was pleased to hear of his advancement in the army of General Pershing, she was far more pleased to hear that he is to enjoy a rest and it will be a great relief to her to know that he is safe behind the lines.

Col. Shaw is a man of few words but in writing of the situation as it has existed for him of late he declared that he was in the midst of the worst of the war with all its attendant dangers.

SELL STOCK FROM GRACE BROS., SONOMA RANCH

Joe Grace of Grace Brothers one of the owners of the big stock and dairy ranch near here, of which Frank Rankin is the popular superintendent, was in town Wednesday in regard to the deal just consummated whereby 120 head of three year old cattle were sold to a meat buyer of San Francisco. The lot comprised steers, heifers and cows and brought a big price.

Grace still has the remainder of the 237 head which have been on his Sonoma range in addition to the fine lot of Holsteins and calves for which his ranch is already famous. If Herefords and Guernseys enough can be purchased by Mr. Grace he will sell all the rest of the beef cattle now on hand.

RELAY JOY RIDER COMES TO GRIEF

Jesse O. Cooper and a party of friends motored down from Santa Rosa last week to enjoy one of our renowned Italian dinners and upon the return trip decided "to step out" at the Hotel Chauvet, Glen Ellen. While Terpsichore held them entranced and their auto stood by the side of the curb it took the eye of Alfred Persons, a recent employee of the Home, who conceived the idea of finishing the relay and taking up the joy ride where the auto owner had left off. He therefore started the machine and disappeared around one of the romantic curves which Glen Ellen is famous.

The owner of the car finally decided to steer for his home at Santa Rosa and upon going out and missing his "animal" he rang up Sheriff Smith who in turn put Jack Murray on the job. The local deputy lost no time in locating the missing machine but it was in the ditch, sans tire and sans driver.

As Cooper did not care to ride on the rim going home he was forced to send for a taxi to get his friends back to Santa Rosa.

Murray arrested the would be joy rider and he is to be charged with grand larceny for the grand time he had at the autoist's expense.

LAST DAY FOR NOMINATIONS BRINGS SURPRISES

Thursday was the last day for candidates to file their nominations at Santa Rosa and a surprise was created by J. Emmet Olmsted of the Petaluma Argus for State Senator on the Republican ticket. He runs against Herbert Slater, Democrat.

Assemblyman Bob Madison qualified on both tickets in the 13th Assembly district. Congressman Lea has a petition with more than 600 names of both Republican and Democratic, which will place him on the ballots of both parties and assures his return to serve the people of this district at Washington.

Henry Weber Jr. has made quite a hit with his fine voice at Camp Kearney and frequently sings at the Y. M. C. A. there to large and appreciative audiences.

EXPERIENCES OF SOLDIER "OVER THERE" AS GLEANED FROM LETTERS TO HIS MOTHER

Mrs. Mary L. Carter's Grandson Writes of Trip to France And Says
Army Life Is Great.

May 23, 1918.

My dear mother:

That much talked of and looked forward to land of "Over There" is most powerful close at hand now. We ought to make post to-night or to-morrow so things indicate, but when we'll get off this "tub" there is no telling. I sure hope they won't delay a minute. The tub has far as was practicable and possible to make it been O. K. Of course they can't carry us 1st class nor even steerage but pretty near as good as the latter. I can't give details about things but will have to reserve them till I get back.

There hasn't been any excitement on the trip thus far other than "abandon ship" drills every little while, guard duty and hunting for a sent. The last named is a daily almost hourly occurrence. There being so many of us huddled together in one little portion of the deck that one rarely is so fortunate as to get a seat and sometimes is hard put for standing room. Oh, yes one other "exciting" thing was that of attempting to get just one clear breath of fresh air while in our sleeping quarters. You cannot put 500 or more men in one little bed with only 4 or 5 small ventilation holes and expect the resultant air to be fresh and sweet especially when there is very little breeze blowing.

Was corporal of the guard last night. I was so fortunate as to draw the forward end of the guard. There the guard house is the top of a hatchway dirty and over-crowded. The aft end is very spacious and clean. Clean that word is one sincerely I hope to use 10 minutes after we hit the camp.

You simply can't get dirt off in salt water and that is what we have aboard.

Say of all the mixtures of breeds of men, nationalities, color and sizes we sure have aboard this ship. There is a branch of artillery men, none in the service more than a month and we have some fun at their expense for they do not seem to comprehend what is told them.

The latter part of last week, I was ushering in the dining room showing "the guests" their "seats"—some job rest camp. Thank God for that! not for there were "no such animals" that it is so very bad but it could be just tables placed far enough apart to permit the boys to stand back to back. It was some experience when the surrounding county (what we you feed such a number of men that it takes 1½ to 2 hours and a constant stream of them coming in and going out. The fact that they bake over 1800 loaves of bread a day will give you some idea as to the size of the proposition, two slices to a man.

While on the food subject will say that the food "trough" thru from Camp Lewis has been far superior to what we expected. We have absolutely no reason to complain.

Well, "Come and get it" just blew so me for the "feed bag." I'll write again as soon as possible. In the meantime this is to let you know that I'm on top yet and still able to make some noise. Write soon—very soon Mother dear. With an ocean of love to you and everyone.

Your son Neal.

May 25, 1918.

My dear Mother:

Well, we are here, Some place? This camp we are in must have been built before Napoleon's time for the barracks are as old as the hills, very odd. They must be at least one full city block long, perhaps 25 feet wide and two stories high, built of stone and repaired with cement, slate roof and inside as bare as a barn. The only thing modern is sweet especially when there is very little breeze blowing.

Last evening after much jockeying around we were filled into this building, dark as a bunch of black cats and we spread our blankets on the floor. We had had nothing but a cup of coffee since noon up to 9:30 p. m. After a 4 mile hike with full packs you can easily realize that we were powerful hungry. Well we were issued enough to satisfy the inner man till morning, cold uncooked wienies and bread. Believe me, tho I've eaten some swell meals they hit the spot about as well as anything I ever had before.

To-day we've done a little bit of nothing excepting carrying wood and rations. I understood this is just a rest camp. Thank God for that! not for there were "no such animals" that it is so very bad but it could be a whole lot better and not inconvenient us a bit.

The surrounding county (what we saw of it as we marched in) as there is a high wall all around us here, was very picturesque, I wished for a kodak, the permission to use one and a pass three things next to impossible to get I'm told. Am I happy with it all? Sure! Why? because everything is so radically different from anything I've ever experienced before.

To-day I was assigned to a special detail with several men and told to pack up and be ready to leave camp immediately Where to? Quen Sabe. But just as we were ready they canceled the order, now it stands for tomorrow morning. Me for it. Gee but I'm getting powerful impatient to hear from you mother dear and all the rest. We ought to get some mail soon, also some pay. I am going to make a request for a few things I'd like to have you send me and have the captain sign it and send it to you. Neal

June 3rd, 1918.

My dear Mother:

Please mother dear, excuse the neglectful way I treated my correspondence. But Mother since we landed on this side I've been as busy as a bee every minute up to yesterday and on that day I just rested. To-day I've been doing my washing and other necessary things along with moving my personal effects, also doing some playing. The latter consisted of paddling an old flat bottomed boat about the canal, on whose banks we are camped.

Our present camp is most delightful in regard to the water which Blakeman claims as his own in that it originates from springs on his own land, that the court has ordered the County Surveyor to view the premises and report the true state of affairs. Mr. Bigelow seeks a permanent injunction and claims that riparian rights are involved. The scrap over water in the hills west of town is a regularly expected one each season at this time of the year for the supply is regularly low and neighborhood rivalry for it has led to frequent court action between various parties.

It certainly is beautiful in this country. I can't blame artists for raving over France. Every way one Among the Sonoma Valley boys in this quota are the following: Joseph Cala, Sonoma; George Wallman Jr., Sonoma; Edmund Bacher, Vineburg; Harry Jacob Ahl, Agua Caliente; Frank Leal, Sonoma; Kandido Lewis, Sonoma; Manuel Traina, Sonoma; Wm. Johnson, El Verano; Abramo Marconci Jr., Schellville; and Chas. Kelly, Sonoma.

DEPUTY SHERIFF MURRAY A WITNESS FOR J. K. BIGELOW

Deputy Sheriff Murray testified in the celebrated water case of Bigelow vs Blakeman at Santa Rosa this week and recited how he had gone with Bigelow at 4 o'clock on the morning of June 29th to view the premises whereon disputed water is situated and declares it was running into Blakeman's alfalfa patch. Blakeman declared that the water was ordered shut off at night and he had so instructed his superintendent.

Testimony has been so conflicting in regard to the water which Blakeman claims as his own in that it originates from springs on his own land, that the court has ordered the County Surveyor to view the premises and report the true state of affairs. Mr. Bigelow seeks a permanent injunction and claims that riparian rights are involved.

The scrap over water in the hills west of town is a regularly expected one each season at this time of the year for the supply is regularly low and neighborhood rivalry for it has led to frequent court action between various parties.

Vive La France!

HEARTS UNITED twixt France and the United States was evident on the great day in the history of France, "The Fall of the Bastille" which was celebrated generally throughout this country this year. President Wilson issued a call to the people of America to generally celebrate the 14th day of July, which marked a great epoch in democracy.

Americans are today idolized in France for they embody the great principles for which the French broke down the barriers reared by the cruel autocracy of days gone and which the Fall of the Bastille typifies. Now when those precious liberties, secured by countless sacrifices have been menaced by Hun ruthlessness and military madness, has come the United States to the defense of France and her allies.

The principle involved and the character of the menace were strong factors which actuated this country to count no sacrifices too dear when once they realized that our place was by the side of France. Not only on the side of the desperately fighting French soldiers, but at their side, with them, hand in hand.

And so we have become linked by a strong tie for the blood of our sons, theirs and ours intermingle on the battlefields over there and then in contrast there is the union of voices in the shouts of victories won, and lines held along the battle front by the two nations and their brave brothers of England and Italy. So we sorrow and joy together, rejoicing in common on the holidays dear to one and another, awaiting that most glorious of days yet to come, the day when the allies shall have assured the world enduring peace and have made the nations secure from the menace of Germany's insane ambition. Lafayette, that great patriot divined the sort of an alliance his beloved France must always have with the United States. He had confidence in the friendship he cemented twixt the countries and his great and good offices have neither been forgotten nor was he mistaken in his devotion to the upbuilding of a life long, loyal friend to heroic France

A National Egg Day

WE ARE TO DO some cackling in Sonoma County about one of our greatest industries, the poultry business, and we have decided upon a national egg day, that our cackle may be heard all over the United States. As a matter of fact, the importance of the poultry business and its magnitude has been something to crow about, but the promotionists advise that we cackle over the egg business, for cackling, not crowing, brings home the bacon and also the eggs.

Not only is it a brilliant idea to make the value of the egg as a food product realized by the country everywhere but it is doubly nice to live in a county which can quote such splendid statistics on the chicken business and it will bring us splendid advertising results in this section of California. It is furthermore designed to awaken interest in the cost of production of an egg which is a very important item just now to the poultry men and women of the country although most apartment house consumers of eggs forget that they are not picked from the trees, found in the fields like mushrooms or dug out of the ground like potatoes and many of our administrative friends are just about as thoughtless, else they would find a means to help the poultrymen tide over the critical periods which have beset them and threatened to almost wipe out what has been in the past a wonderfully successful business. A national egg day will tend to clarify the situation and to give our poultry producers the important place they should hold in the public eye.

CHOOSES SONOMA VALLEY FOR HOME AFTER MUCH TRAVEL

J. J. Smith of Crockett, who has traveled around a lot in California and has been coming to Sonoma Valley as a visitor off and on for the past twelve years, has located here. Mr. Smith has purchased the Ed. Guyot place at Bunea Vista Station and is making many improvements. His family expects to join him about the 20th.

The new comer is a brother of the Mr. C. J. Smith, our well known resident, and an uncle of the Misses Smith who were in the millinery business here. He has had extensive property interests in Valona and has made considerable money in real estate there during the past year.

Sonoma Valley is to be congratulated upon the locating here of a progressive and substantial family like the Smiths.

BETTER BABIES TO BE FEATURE AT STATE FAIR

One of the California State Fair's big features this year will be the Better Baby Conference, held in conformity with President Wilson's proclamation to the nation to observe 1918 as Better Baby Year. Fully 3,000 babies, hailing from every section of the state are expected to be in attendance.

Plans for the Conference are being worked out by the State of Agriculture with the assistance of Miss Amy Steinhart, Chief Children's Agent of the State Board of Control and Chairman of the Advisory Committee, and the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, of which Dr. Jessie A. Russell, of Glendale, is President.

Daily conferences will be held, mornings from 10 o'clock until four. Physicians and nurses from the Children's Department of the State Board of Control and from the Sacramento County Hospital will make free examinations and give consultations, besides delivering daily talks and demonstrations on proper feeding, clothing, bathing, and general care.

A special day will be devoted to Japanese mothers and their children with Japanese-speaking doctors and nurses giving the addresses and conducting the demonstrations. Another special day will be given over to Italian mothers and babies.

Details of a baby contest, with Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps as prizes, are also being worked out.

PROMINENT VISITOR HERE SATURDAY LAST

J. L. Peters of the Tax-payers association was in town Saturday last and as always proved interesting to his friends over this way, for Mr. Peters is conversant with every bit of important work under consideration or being carried out by Sonoma County.

Mr. Peters says the association is not what it was supposed to be, a tight-fisted critical organization to hamper county expenditure, but on the contrary, it is a forward looking body, ready to endorse all projects for the good of the tax-payers, even if they do require an outlay of money.

However, if expenditure is not to the interest of the county, as investigation of the proposed county printing plant proved to be, his organization will not get behind it. The Supervisors decided to stay with the old plan of giving county work to printers and not trying to go into the business themselves. We suggest that the Supervisors see that the county work is spread around a little, the tax-payers of the various communities will be better satisfied and the prices will be kept within bounds of reason. There is no spirit of profiteering in the county press and Mr. Peters expressed himself as satisfied of that.

Mr. Peters made a strong plea for the recent appropriation for Rural Fire Protection and the organization of a county system of controlling fires is a great satisfaction to him.

R. Q. Wickham of the Red Rock Ranch, Glen Ellen, is to be an exhibitor at the State Fair and expects to be close up to a big premium this year in the Futurity class—close enough to bring it home. Good luck Romulus Quintilius.

MRS. BYRON WEDS LIEUTENANT AT SAN DIEGO

Mrs. Alice M. Byron of Oakland, who formerly resided here and has since been divorced from her former husband, Dr. A. E. Byron, was married in San Diego on July first to Lieutenant James A. Simmons of the Quartermaster's Corps, at Camp Kearney.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Simmons are residing at San Diego where they will remain as long as the army officer's assignment is the Southern California cantonment.

The chickens of Yolo County are said to be afraid of the airplanes and the bird men of the new aviation camp near there. Sonoma County chickens would be trying to imitate their stunts if we had a Mather field here.

President F. M. Burris of the Sonoma Valley Bank has been the guest of Chas. Rule, that prince of hosts at Rules Landing.

Mrs. Dora Burris Glaister of Santa Barbara, has been here with her children on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Julia Burris.

The Toggery Will Close Its Doors

The many patrons in Sonoma Valley of "The Toggery," Petaluma's most beautiful and largest clothing store and haberdashery, situated in the Prince building at Western Avenue and Kentucky street, will learn with regret that it is soon to close its doors, as the popular owner, Mr Chris C. Riewerts has decided to retire from business at least while the war lasts.

This step is taken after due deliberation, and is owing to war conditions, the departure of so many young men to the army and navy and the older men to the shipyards and also the great difficulty of securing goods of the type kept by this splendid establishment.

The store has been closed for a few days to prepare for this wonderful clearance sale which commenced,

THURSDAY, JULY 18th

for the disposal of the entire stock at prices that will astonish patrons. The store will be rented and fixtures sold.

LOUIS WACHLIN GETS FEVER AND ENLISTS

L. A. Wachlin, the genial proprietor of the Villa Savoy at El Verano has reenlisted in the Navy and has been assigned to duty at Mare Island as chief Commissary Steward, with the rank of sergeant. Mr. Wachlin is a former enlisted man having been in the navy some years ago.

With the progress of the war and the activity every where about him the pressure got too much for him and the old desire to serve Uncle Sam caused him to reenlist.

Wachlin's many Sonoma friends were surprised to see him in uniform and he makes a handsome husky looking sailor, no foolin'.

Mrs. Leslie Mc Kinnon whose husband's regiment left the Presidio some time ago sent her a beautiful letter by wire Thursday night last from Camp Mills New York. Thursday was their wedding anniversary.

PROMINENT VISITORS WERE IN TOWN WEDNESDAY

Wm. P. Cauby and Roland Beesey assistant District attorney of San Francisco were in town Wednesday and did some good boosting for Chas. M. Fickert. Mr. Fickert's fearless policy against the enemies of law and order and his stand in the Mooney case were reviewed by Messrs Cauby and Beesey who also left with their friends a resume of the Mooney case as presented to the Governor, who has been asked to pardon the man convicted of the Preparedness Day bomb outrage.

Mr. Cauby who is a big Native Son is very popular here and Mr. Beesey who has been here before with Coroner Frank Phillips has many friends in Sonoma and is always pleased to return when business calls him in this direction.

Miss Mary Springer has been visiting Mrs. Ted Whitlow (nee Dorothy Macfarlane) in San Francisco.

SIGNERS OF PETITION AGAINST FETTERS

COPY OF DOCUMENT WITH NAMES SECURED WHICH LED TO REVOCATION OF FETTERS SPRINGS LICENSE

The following residents of Sonoma Valley signed the several petitions circulated to take the license away from Fetters Springs following the Federal indictment, charging the sale of liquor to men in uniform. The matter was first taken up in the Woman's club after Mrs. J. H. Murray, wife of J. H. Murray declared something should be done and Mrs. F. T. Duhring made a strong plea for the club to go on record against a resort which she characterized as a menace.

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame, of the County Council of Women's Clubs, Mrs. John Wagon, wife of Sonoma's postmaster, Mrs. Mont Akers, Mrs. Erazmus, Mrs. Franquelin, Mrs. Johanssen, and Mrs. Green were those who circulated petitions and helped secure the following names:

The petition is as follows:
Sonoma, California,
June 21st, 1918.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF SONOMA COUNTY

At a regular meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club held on the above date, and at which about 25 members were present, a motion was carried without one dissenting voice, to effect that your Honorable Body be respectfully requested to revoke the license of the saloon or bar at Fetters Springs Resort.

It was also decided to circulate petitions among the residents of the Valley praying the same.

The undersigned petitioners ask that the request be granted and also that a renewal of the license be refused.

RECORDER NAGLE SEEKS REELECTION

Fred G. Nagle for many years the efficient recorder of Sonoma County seeks to be reelected and his card announcing his candidacy appears elsewhere in the columns of this newspaper.

Mr. Nagle brought to his office the system whereby cash collections were made for filing all records and now fees are invariably paid the county in cash. Formerly there was much money outstanding and it was an expensive process necessitating intricate book-keeping and extra help. Mr. Nagle has done away with all of this and his son is his only deputy.

Nagle was formerly in Somers B. Fulton's office in Santa Rosa and has a wide circle of friends throughout the county.

If experience and business capacity count for anything Mr. Nagle is entitled to the big vote he seeks.

J. F. Prestwood had a fine trip of three days to the coast, over the last week end and met all the voters in that section of the county, even to the last one nearest the Mendocino county line, a Mr. Filbert, who was most cordial and was pleased to meet the genial candidate and pledged him his vote. Mr. Prestwood also met old friends—among them, Mrs. Grace Shaw Williams, whose sister, Susie Shaw was a former teacher in Sonoma's Grammar School.

GRAPE GROWERS DECIDE TO APPEAL TO PRESIDENT WILSON

At a large and spirited meeting of prominent grape growers last Thursday in San Francisco, the proposed prohibition legislation at Washington which would prove the ruin of thousands of California's leading citizens and patriots who are giving their all to the winning of the war, it was decided to wire President Wilson and ask his help in the name of justice that the outrage might not be perpetrated.

Father Crowley challenged the proposition that grape growing imperiled the conservation of manpower. "History records no struggles more strenuous than those at the Marne and at Verdun. The heroes of those gigantic battles, which called for all that was strongest in human flesh and blood, were wine-drinking people."

He strongly advised the sending of a delegation to Washington which would include some of the hardy sons of toil.

"Let them," said the clergyman, "tell the people that they come from no mean state, but from the one that clinched the election for President Wilson."

CROPS

The telegram which was sent to the President Thursday night recites that:

"There is now hanging on the 170,000 acres of wine grape vines of this state alone a crop worth 14,000,000. Millions have been spent in this one season alone to bring those vineyards into their present condition laden with grapes to be harvested sixty days hence."

"If the measure in its present form now before the Senate is adopted the entire crop is valueless and the growers face ruin. The measure offers no relief nor consideration from the government for this disastrous blow."

"Aside from the tremendous loss to the grower and the government the grape growers ask full consideration of the dangerous experiment of depriving a large proportion of the toiling population—the brawn and sinew of this country of an article of diet which they consider essential to their happiness and well being. All of the banks and business houses in California are vitally concerned."

PATRIOTIC CLASS

"The records of California show that there has been no class of people in this State more responsive to the government appeals than vineyardists. They sent word a week ago through their congressman to the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives that they would endeavor to handle a 100 per cent increase in taxation on their product in their loyalty to the great war cause. This consent on their part means that on a normal production of wine this fall the government would collect $15,000,000 in tax money."

"The vineyardists have been among the most active workers in their respective communities in behalf of Liberty bonds, war saving stamps and Red cross work. Thousands of their boys are at the front or prepared to go."

"MONSTROUS CRIME"

"Quick destruction of this tremendous industry would be little short of a monstrous crime to honest, loyal, law-abiding citizens. It would be a hollow mockery to permit manufacture up to November 1 (or any other date) when the (manufactured) product could not possibly be sold by the date specified—January 1, 1919. As our wine grapes would rot in the devastated vineyards."

It was also pointed out that the greatest efficiency in shipbuilding has been in San Francisco, center of the wine industry.

Miss Nora Nayman, a graduate of the Chico Normal School, has accepted the position of teacher at Tule Vista. School opened last Monday.

Mrs. Frank Thompson and children have returned from a week's visit in San Jose.

Purdy Campbell of San Jose who is in the limited class of Uncle Sam's national army, leaves on the 29th for Vancouver barracks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Simmons are to enjoy a delightful vacation on the Russian river. Jack Brown will be in charge of the pharmacy during Mr. Simmons' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Champlin have returned from their outing at Sebastopol, having motored down Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Lutgens has been seriously ill, following the birth of her last baby and four doctors were called in consultation.

SONOMA CHAPTER MEMBERS VISITORS TO NAPA LODGE

Grand Matron Ivy Crane Shellhammer paid an official visit to Napa Lodge of Eastern Star last Monday night and at the joint installation of Keystone and Silver Spray chapters a large delegation of Sonoma Eastern Stars was present. Among those who motored from here were Mrs. Koeboom and Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Burnester, Mrs. Chas. Cutter and Mrs. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Potter, Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Jessen and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan.

APPLES LATE BUT PRICES BETTER

Gravenstein apples from this section will be about two weeks late on the markets this year. Reports indicate that this fruit will be ready for shipment between July 15 and put in an appearance about July 1. Prices promise to be the highest ever known on this popular summer variety. Four-tier stock is expected to open around $2 per box f. o. b. Sebastopol.

Last year Gravensteins opened at $1.60 on the four-tier pack, receded to $1.50 and then advanced to $1.65 on a strong Eastern demand at the close. It was one of the most successful seasons any growers have experienced.

California leads the Union in the production of this variety. According to government reports, Gravensteins rank third among the commercial varieties in this state in the matter of output.

Yellow Newtown Pippins come first. Bellflowers second and Gravensteins third. Gravensteins comprise about 9 per cent of the state's total apple production, inclusive of all descriptions.

The Gold Ridge section is the big center of Gravenstein production in California. Present indications are that the Sonoma county crop will aggregate about normal, or 300 cars. The yield promises to be rather light, but this will be offset largely by the increased acreage in bearing.

Only about 500 or 600 boxes of apples remain in storage in San Francisco. These are mostly northern Winecaps, Rome Beauties, Hood River Newtowns, etc.

A GOOD MAN FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

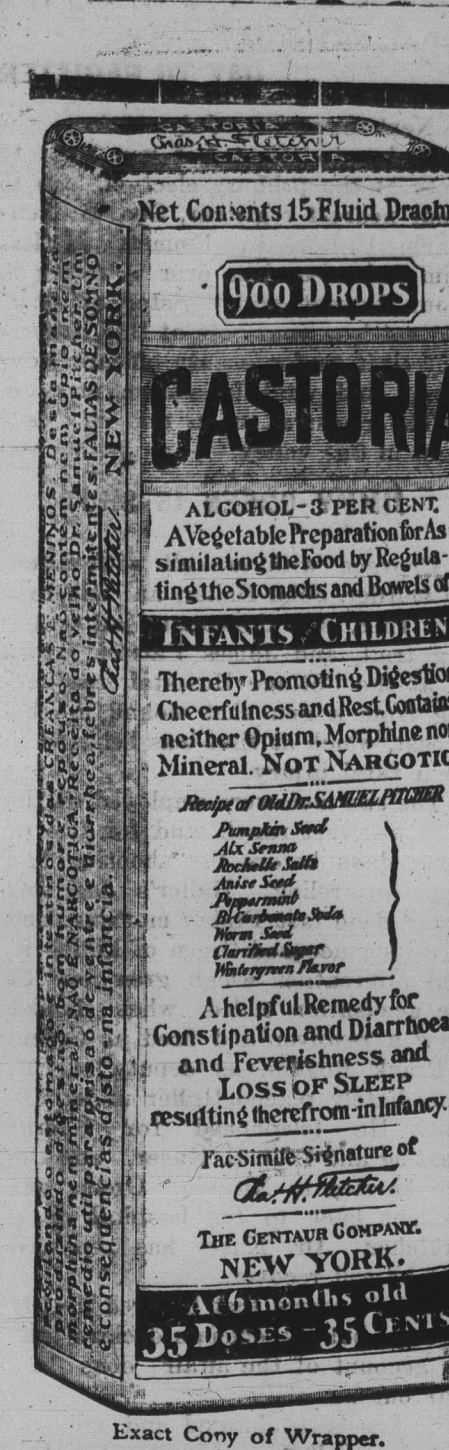

Jo V. Snyder, well known newspaper man of Nevada City, is making an energetic campaign for the Democratic and Republican nominations for Lieutenant Governor at the primary election on Thursday, August nominee four years ago, at which time he received 107,000 more votes than the Democratic candidate for Governor, or nearly twice as many as the head of the ticket. He was a Wilson president elector two years ago, receiving the third highest vote, although his name appeared far down the ballot. Mr. Snyder recently retired as Grand President of the Native Sons and is a former legislator, having represented Nevada county in the session of 1903. He was the floor leader of the party and received the vote for Speaker of the Assembly, notwithstanding that he was the third youngest member of that body. He was a staunch friend of all important labor measures, and of all legislation tending to the welfare and upholding of California. On two different occasions he declined the nomination for Congress in the old first district.

Jo V. Snyder was born and raised in Nevada county, and is a sterling type of the California self-made man. After receiving only a common grammar school education, Mr. Snyder started as a printer's "devil" and through his energy and ability work, came business manager and part owner of The Morning Union, one of the leading interior dailies of the state. Buffed men in the state enjoy a wider personal acquaintance. He is a hustling and vigorous campaigner, as well as an eloquent and fluent speaker, and has the reputation of always standing for the right irrespective of politics.

JIMMY GREEN IS SHOT

Charged with assault with intent to murder, John Haller, an itinerant saw-filer, is in the county jail awaiting trial, and James Patrick Green is at the Cottage Hospital, recovering from a gun shot wound in his breast, which at first was believed to be a fatal injury.

The two men were employed on the S. J. Stewart ranch, and for two or three days before the shooting had been quarreling. Haller's dog was found dead last Friday morning, and its owner accused Green of killing it.
The altercation which grew out of the accusation ended when Haller drew a revolver and fired at Green.
Frank Rogers, as deputy sheriff, immediately placed Haller under arrest. He telephoned for Sheriff Keating and D. J. H. Kuser, and the two hurried to Nicasio. Green was brought back to the hospital on a stretcher. Dr. Kuser has reported that he will recover.

Haller asserts that he fired in self defense, but the officials declare that his account of the affair does not bear out his claim.
He has been charged and will appear for preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace de la Montanya.

Second of Napa, and a bride of a few weeks was stricken with appendicitis last week and rushed to the Hennessey hospital at Napa where she underwent an operation. Mrs.

save her life, she consented and a specialist from San Francisco was called and assisted Dr. Hennessey.
Mr. Panerazi has been most devoted to his young wife and has made daily trips from Glen Ellen to the turns one sees things of beauty, and artistically situated. But like the town across the canal from us, they won't stand close inspection.

I believe I told you of the special detail I was on in the last camp.
Well it lasted but three days when the whole battalion up-anchored from this place. We worked right up to the last minute before the train left, loading some freight cars. Even if it was decidedly much shorter than I expected, I am very thankful that I was on that detail. The work wasn't hard, though it was handling freight, because of the small amount to do. We had good food a fine place to live in and permission to go to town every night. Believe me we saw the town in those few days. One of the boys and I went off on exploration jaunts every evening. Therefore we got a fairly good idea of the town. I'm sorry though for one thing, that it wasn't one of the better cities in to formulate my opinions of France in general. This place I'm told is one of the dirtiest of them all. It sure was dirty.

Instead of manure as I told you of the other town, the people dump all of their garbage etc. into the streets.
Now maybe you think there weren't some delightful odors in those back streets. There sure was.

The kids never fail to beg for money every time they get within talking distance of an American.
It got to be a regular joke on our trip across the country.

Do you remember Empey's description of a cross country train ride? If not, look it up. He sure said all. Did ye have Pullmans? O!
yes if horse cars are in that class.
Believe me it was no pleasure trip, though it didn't seem as hard on us as it might have been if we hadn't been gradually hardened up to it.
You see with that across the U. S.
then the boat and then this last trip, each one a little worse than the former,
we were ready for most anything.

We didn't of course get to see anything much of the important cities, but the country was beautiful. Everything so green and fresh, at times it bordered on a tropical green it was so vivid. Then too, they have those beautiful bright red opium poppies here, growing every where, wild and the yellow gorse and numerous other beautiful wild flowers. The whole together, scattered hither and thither makes a sight most pleasing to the eyes.

I suppose you would like to know how I am feeling. If I felt better I would have to see a doctor. I've learned one big lesson since I left camp in U. S. i. e. to be happy any where at any time under any conditions. It certainly is better than seeing the disagreeable side of things and grumbling over them. I don't let them fill my thoughts.

You ought to see the trains flying past us here. There is one every few minutes, and nearly all loaded to capacity. When I first saw a French train I hadn't much respect for them, especially the engine, but I changed my mind after a few hours of traveling on one. They make powerful good time with quite heavy loads.

Well this is all for this time Heavy dear. Tell all the folks I'll try and write as soon as possible, but not to wait for me because it's a powerful long time between letters. We haven't received any mail yet. With lots of love to every one.

Your loving son Neal
